Lewisville-Clemmons Chamber Kicks off 2015

The Lewisville-Clemmons Chamber of Commerce kicked off 2015 with over ninety attendees at their January meeting. The new board transitioned to office on January 1 led by Board Chair, Dana Bryson and the newly named Chamber Director, Ginny Chase.

Jason Keller, with Modern Woodmen of America, and the Chamber’s newly elected VP of Networking, presented to Chamber members. Modern Woodmen of America is a member-owned fraternal financial services organization. They secure futures with financial guidance and products. Since 1883, Modern Woodmen has brought people together, supported families and strengthened communities nationwide. Keller focused on the company’s core values: financial security, quality family life and community impact.

Michael Roels, owner of Essential Balanced Bodywork in Clemmons, said, “Since joining the Chamber I’ve increased my business and I’ve learned about other local businesses. These connections have been integral in supporting my business and marketing plans for 2015.”

The Lewisville-Clemmons Chamber of Commerce welcomes you and your business and invites you to visit our February 10th Chamber meeting at the Historic Broyhill Building on Clemmons Road from 11:30 am to 1:00 pm. In addition to the monthly meeting, the Chamber offers two different leads groups.
